

2018 Friends Association for Higher Education Conference
Wilmington College, Wilmington, Ohio
June 14-17, 2018

The FAHE conference opens with dinner on Thursday evening. Many attendees enjoy arriving earlier in the afternoon to settle in and get to know our host institution's campus. To that end, the faculty and staff at Wilmington College are offering tours of some of the campus's special features.

If you'd like to reserve a spot on one of these tours, please email your request to fahe@quaker.org

All tours start at 3:00 pm. and will run about an hour. There is no additional charge for conference attendees.

1. Peace Resource Center, Hiroshima Center & Quaker Heritage Center, with Director Tanya Maus
2. Wilmington College Farm and Agricultural Program, with Monte Anderson
3. Wilmington College arboretum and natural area, with Biology Department faculty
